

You many a dollar will escape you if you fail to read carefully and regularly the advertising of local merchants in this paper.

Every person who gives us a printing job is satisfied. When he has another printing order he never thinks of going elsewhere. If you need printing drop in and see us.

ISLAND

July 25—Miss Edith Lehman called on Miss Erma Detrow Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. Minerva Yoder called on Sunday afternoon at Stephen Martin's Sunday.

Rev. Henry Horst and family were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Culp in Columbiana.

J. J. Witmer and family were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Culp in Columbiana.

J. J. Witmer and family were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Weaver.

The "singing" held at the home of D. C. Witmer Saturday evening was well attended.

D. R. Lehman and family and Norman and Alta Lehman were Sunday dinner guests in the home of A. S. Brubaker and family in East Lewis town.

Walter Detrow and sister Verda were sight seeing in Youngstown Sunday.

M. S. Brubaker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stempfl, Mrs. Elizabeth Hursh, John and Enos Witmer, Miss Mary Knapp and Rhonda Witmer and sister Emma were Sunday guests of J. M. Knapp and family.

D. R. Lehman attended the meeting of the directors of the Dairyman's Co-operative Association held in Jefferson, O., Monday. Fifty three of the 63 locals were represented and the price for August and September milk was fixed at $2.80 per hundred pounds for 3% milk. The next directors' meeting will be held in Warren, Ohio, at the call of President P. F. Brenneke.

Noah Weaver and family were Sunday visitors with his brother, J. J. Martin, in Columbiana.

Isreal Wenger, who has been in Michigan for a year, is home helping put up his father's harvest.

David Lehman, Abram Martin and Raymond Compton called on Henry Rich Sunday evening.

Ira Horst and family visited Mrs. Salome Weaver Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zeigler and son Ralph of North Lima and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver were Sunday visitors of Adam Wenger and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Esterly, Mrs. McNab, Mr. Kennedy and little son and Mr. Kahler and lady friend of Youngstown ate supper with H. H. Calvin and family, Sunday.

MILLVILLE

July 25—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Roberts of Youngstown were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Orr.

Mrs. G. E. Goodrich of Youngstown spent Saturday here with friends.

Several from this community attended the Sunday school convention in Washingtonville last Sunday and report an excellent program.

Leonard Barber and family of Salem spent Sunday at the home of George Crutchley.

Wm. Ashman of Beloit was a Sunday guest at the home of Fred Reese and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones of Youngstown spent Sunday here with friends.

Favoring their guests with a splendid program of amusement Wednesday evening Misses Lucy and Elsie Howell were hostesses to the King's Daughters and Knights of Honor classes of the Millville Sunday school at their home here. Sweet peas were used in decorations. The string and candy contest was won by Miss Winifred Holwick and the peanut scramble by Miss Mary Tots, who Raymond Arner was awarded the prize in the word contest. Miss Mary Pow and brother Herschel of New Albany and Miss Winifred Holwick were invited guests.

Thomas and William Howell spent Saturday and Sunday at Silver Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Todd were guests of the latter's parents in Salem Sunday.

George Crutchley was in Greenford Wednesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Elmer Schurmerberger of Gettysburg, who has been an invalid for some time, were shocked to hear of her sudden death Sunday morning. The funeral was held Tuesday from the Lutheran church in Greenford.

C. W. Dunn and Charles Prantz of Salem called on friends in the village Friday.

Archibald Holland returned home Saturday evening from a visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

ELLSWORTH

July 25—A large crowd attended the play in town hall Saturday night and all enjoyed it.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning.

Miss Anna Shaffer spent Thursday night in Warren with her sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jack visited here Saturday evening and Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Resler has returned home after spending a week in Canton with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Resler.

Mrs. William Schaefer and daughter Ruth were in Canfield Saturday.

Dr. B. C. Barnard of Alliance visited his sister, Mrs. C. Case, last week. Dr. Barnard joined the medical officers' reserve corps at Ft. Benjamin Harrison. He is now at Corry, Pa., examining men for the army.

Jerry Resler was in Canfield the first of the week.

Mrs. Chauncey Buck of North Jackson called here Saturday.

Ray Miller is threatened with fever. Farmers are busy cutting wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Max and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shaffer called here Saturday evening.

J. C. Bunde and John Cutting were in Youngstown Monday morning.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. George Reed Thursday, Aug. 2, at 2 P. M. Roll call—Word Power.

Miss Hilda Gordon entertained Miss Mildred Hatch of Phoenix a few days.

The Ladies' Aid gave a very commendable program consisting of two plays, reading and music last Saturday evening. The attendance was large. The Aid treasury was very pleasing and promises great things for the future of Ellsworth. The participants in the program and all who helped deserve congratulations for their splendid success.

MINERAL RIDGE

July 25—Misses Ethel and Mary Jones have returned from a week's visit with friends in Canton.

Miss Mabel Lewis and David Hughes were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Leah Lewis, only immediate members of the family being present.

Miss Gladys Williams of Youngstown spent the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Williams.

Frank Krause and family of Youngstown were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Krause.

Willis Rummell of Sharon, Pa., was the week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rummell.

The Study Club held a moonlight picnic Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Prosser.

On Wednesday the Daughters and Sons of Veterans and a few friends of Niles and Mineral Ridge enjoyed a picnic in Agnes' grove. Dinner was served at six o'clock and in the evening a campfire was lighted and marshmallows roasted. Games and patriotic music whiled the hours away. The grounds were decorated with flags and bunting. This picnic has become an annual affair and is looked forward to by all who participate as an enjoyable event. The trip from Niles was made by auto truck and machines.

Howard Hardy, who has been employed in Akron for some time, returned home last Saturday owing to illness which shows symptoms of appendicitis.

Miss Edna Ohi was a Warren visitor Tuesday.

A son was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Patterson.

Mrs. Wm. Jordan of Ohiotown was struck by a train on the Lisbon branch of the Erie, Saturday about ten o'clock and instantly killed. She had been out picking berries and was on her way home and failed to notice the approaching train. The deceased was 70 years of age and had resided in the vicinity of Ohiotown all her life. She is survived by her husband and one sister. Funeral services were held Monday from her late home with interment in the Clinton cemetery.

Mineral Ridge is well represented on the army draft list, about 20 names appearing.

W. H. Jones of Warren was a Sunday guest of his father, David Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McMan and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fryman were among the Riddiges at the Milton dam Sunday.

Attorney W. H. Giffin has opened an office in Niles.

It is announced that the contract will be awarded August for the paving of the Mineral Ridge road. The pavement will be 20 feet in width. This new roadway will be a continuation of Main street and the improvement is to be carried to the Mahoning county line, making the thoroughfare one of the finest in the state.

NEW ALBANY

July 25—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Slagle and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bush of Greenford returned Sunday evening from an automobile trip of 944 miles. The party visited Gettysburg, Pa., Luray Cave, Va., and interesting places in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Rollis Esterly of Hickory purchased an automobile from Amos Hippy.

Joseph Blackburn and son Edwin were recent callers in the village.

Frank Muntz bought a horse from Charles W. Wednesday.

Miss Rhonda Witmer has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lippert, is now visiting at Calla.

Edward Fisher of Salem spent Sunday here with his parents.

Perry Todd of Greenford spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Todd.

The Albany base ball team would be glad to have dates with other teams.

Robert and Albert Pow of Fairfield spent Sunday at C. A. Pow's.

Louise Detrow and her sister Orrie Evans of Salem with their wives recently motored to the Mahoning river where they spent the day fishing.

Francis Fisher of Youngstown is spending part of his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibert of Wash. tonville called Thursday evening at the home of Charles Pow.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lepper and Mr. and Mrs. Jordan of Salem were recent callers at Fred Lepper's.

Harold Fisher and several friends of Greenford motored to Sebring Sunday.

An ice cream festival will be held Saturday evening. Proceeds for the Albany base ball team. Everyone invited.

APPLE AVENUE

July 25—Robert and Donald Baird, who have been very sick, are a little improved.

Mrs. Mary Paulin of near Poland, Mrs. Everett Ferguson and daughter Eva Gray of Youngstown are visiting at F. R. Paulin's.

Mrs. Ray Hewitt and daughter Ruth of Colorado are guests of Mrs. Harvey Goodman.

Miss Mata Haller is spending two weeks with relatives in New Springfield and East Palestine.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Williams and daughter Aileen, Hazel Manchester and Ralph Paulin spent Saturday evening at S. S. Gault's in Geesburg.

Ralph Coy of Salem is working at E. G. Koenig's.

Mrs. Mary Bennett of Payson, Ill., is visiting her nephew, F. H. Williams, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Campbell and Mrs. Ellen Elder visited at Mrs. Manchester's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Coy of Salem, Eli Goodman and daughter Elita of Canfield were visitors at Harvey Goodman's Sunday.

Hazel Manchester spent several days last week with her cousin, Mrs. C. G. Arnold in Youngstown.

George Paulin and Everett Ferguson of Youngstown visited at F. R. Paulin's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Goodman and daughter Celesta of Salem are spending several weeks at their country home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hunt and daughter Marion, Mrs. Margaret Hunt and daughter Edith were callers on the Avenue Sunday evening.

NORTH LIMA

July 25—The annual grange picnic will be held next Saturday on the fair grounds in Canfield. The different granges of the county will be represented by large delegations coming together to spend the day. A good program of sports and entertainment will be in charge of a committee.

A team from Columbiana was defeated by the local team in a game of ball on the home grounds Saturday afternoon. A team from Youngstown will be here next Saturday.

The following young men from this township have been drafted for service on the first call: Clyde Sahli, Rollin Painter, Arthur Burns, Roy Miner, Ralph Buzard, Bruce Stafford, Albert Baum.

Dr. Chas. Miller of Tiffin, president of the Heidelberg University, will be in the village next Sunday and speak in Mt. Olivet Reformed church in the Sunday school and at the hour for worship. His address will be the work done by the University which is an institution of the Reformed church. This is Dr. Miller's first visit to North Lima.

Several friends from here attended the funeral of P. H. Holloway at Columbiana Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alice Burkey of Columbiana spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. L. F. Obenauf.

Miss Mildred Elser of Columbiana was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Elser Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Heindel visited her sisters in Columbiana Sunday.

G. E. Bloom and wife spent Sunday in Sebring. They attended the meetings of the Holiness Association held here near that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. Glenn and daughter Miriam were Leontia visitors Sunday.

Miss Ethel Beard entertained a number of young friends from the city at her home near Pine Lake last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Finnerly and three children and Miss Blanche Freer of the city were visitors at O. J. Freer's Wednesday.

H. H. Hartman's Overland machine was stolen in Youngstown one day last week. Mr. Hartman had driven to town with a load of produce and left the car on Boardman St. Returning later he found it missing, and no clue to its whereabouts has been found. The Ford car of R. E. Elser, stolen two weeks ago, has not yet been found although the Youngstown police are working on both cases.

Mrs. C. Weeden and children have returned home after spending several weeks with her parents at Harrisburg, Pa. She reports that her mother's health is not improving.

According to the report of tester Donald Beiber of the North Lima Cow Testing association three of Roy Frederick's Jerseys yielded as follows: No. 1, 1167 lbs. milk, 3.87 per cent fat, 45.16 lbs. butter; 2, 729 lbs. milk, 5.52 fat, 40.24 butter; 3, 1020 lbs. milk, 5.08 fat, 41.61 butter; O. E. Welsh's two Holsteins—1, 1095 lbs. milk, 3.5 fat, 35.17 butter; 2, 1062 lbs. milk, 3.05 fat, 32.42 butter; Floyd Obenauf's two Holsteins—1, 1191 lbs. milk, 2.5 fat, 29.31 butter; 2, 1008 lbs. milk, 3.5 fat, 35.38 butter. Leo Kohler's Holstein, 1086 lbs. milk, 3.1 fat, 33.60 butter.

POLAND

July 25—The funeral of Oliver Hind Monday afternoon was largely attended.

These are busy days in the harvest field, the cutting of wheat and grass coming together and weeds in corn fields must be fought.

Poland is gradually becoming more populous.

Mrs. Florence Herzog of Buffalo is visiting her brother, Frank Herzog, on the Youngstown road.

Miss Jones of Chautauqua is spending the summer vacation in the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Jones.

L. S. Liddell of Youngstown was a caller Saturday.

Alfred May of New York is visiting his mother, Mrs. Eugene Semple.

Miss Jennie Nesbitt was in Youngstown Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret Leslie motored to Canfield Saturday afternoon.

Arthur L. Jones and Ida May Hahn, both of Poland, were recently married. The ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met in the church parlors last Thursday.

Miss Clyde Calvin spent Friday evening with Mrs. Howard Brannen.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Porter were in Youngstown Friday.

Benjamin H. Cover and Mildred M. Brush of Sharon were married Wednesday at the home of Rev. Jones.

A wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Cover. Charles Smith recently visited his brother-in-law, Mr. McBride, in North Lima.

Mrs. Chas. Smith and daughter Katherine, have returned from a visit near Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith visited their grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Hine.

Mrs. Will Findley and daughter, Margaret, motored to Youngstown Friday.

EAST LEWISTOWN

July 25—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Engler visited in Unity last Sunday.

Joseph Blaxter of nearby Corners is a caller here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrold of Columbiana visited at Joe Lesher's Saturday and Sunday.

Aaron Brubaker and family called on Wm. Compton and family last Friday evening.

Earl Burns has secured employment in Youngstown.

Geo. Harter had business in New Middletown last Saturday.

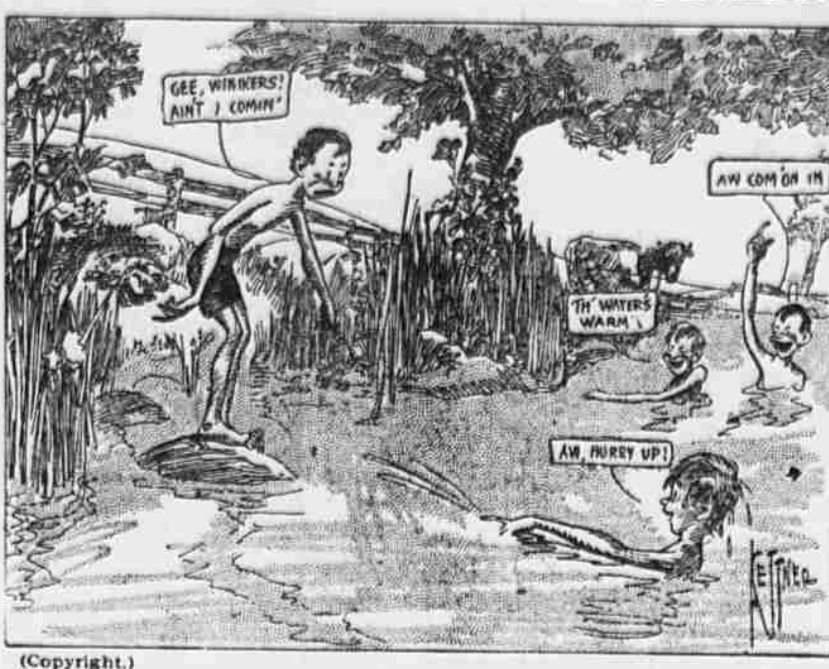

Some of the young folks from here attended a festival at the Boyer school house last Saturday night.

Martin Weaver and daughter Florence have gone to Lancaster, Pa., to attend the funeral of his father.

Jim Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Clapper and John Dunning of East Palestine called on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blosser Sunday afternoon.

Farmers have commenced cutting wheat which is late ripening this year.

THE ROOKIE

(Copyright.)

SHADY HOLLOW

July 25—Mrs. S. J. Snyder and daughter Marys were in Youngstown last Thursday.

C. L. Meeker and family were in Columbiana Saturday evening.

Louis and Wilma Knapp of Washingtonville spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Bare.

Youngstown spent a few days with her uncle, Wm. Dietrich.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman and children Esther and Kenneth called on Frank Osborn of Tippecanoe Sunday evening.

J. G. Van Fossan received a fine collection of rare shells from her brother, E. P. Weaver, one day last week. They were sent from Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson and grandsons Donald and William of Struthers spent a few days at Wm. Dietrich's.

Ada Frye and daughters Margaret and Mildred visited at H. C. Heintzelman's Sunday.

Dorothy Vertz had a siege of quinsy last week.

Howard Kyle was laid up a few days last week, the result of stepping on a nail.

J. G. Van Fossan and family motored to Milton dam Sunday. From there they went to Lordstown and viewed the country where they lived twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heintzelman called on her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gillen in Pleasant Valley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich were in Ravens Sunday afternoon.

E. H. Withers bought four cows at Levant's sale on the Osborn farm Saturday.

Conductor DeGroot has taken his men off the road for a short time to assist in putting up fifty acres of hay on the Lloyd farm.

Millikin and Schantz have a fine garden on the Messerly place.

Several people from Youngstown spent Sunday in Wm. Hall's grave.

Farmers are cutting their wheat this week, John Avery being the first.

Contractor DeGroot and men resurfaced C. T. Galt's drive near Boardman last week.

Ethel, John and Merle Sweeney, Lottie Moyer and Emma Simon of Pleasant Grove and Lester Gibson of Youngstown called on Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heintzelman Friday evening.

Esther Heintzelman was in Canfield Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Orris Mearns and Kenneth Heintzelman visited their sister, Mrs. C. L. Beard in New Egypt Sunday.

Subscribe for The Dispatch, $1.00.

BLANCO

July 25—W. W. Klingeman and Will Hindman and their families of Newton Falls were Sunday visitors at Elmer Klingeman's.

Harris of Alliance was an over Sunday guest at Homer Holbel's.

H. E. Kale and family spent Sunday with Clark Rakestraw and family in Youngstown. Miss Mabel Kale returned home with them after a few days' visit there.

Ed Miller expects to move to Youngstown where he bought a home early this month.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clemons and daughter of Youngstown and Mina Flickinger and son and daughter of Lowellville spent last Sunday at Paul Clemons'.

Paul's sister Esther is staying with him a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guterba of Columbiana is at John Elser's this week. Mr. Guterba is recovering from the shock received when an electric car recently jumped the track in Youngstown and was wrecked.

BELOIT

July 25—Miss Faye Chaney was in Kent Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schindler and children, Ardith and Clayton, of East Palestine, Mrs. Mary Reckley and children, Charles and Theresa, of Pittsburgh spent Sunday evening with Frank Urmon and family.

Mrs. Mack Chaney and daughter, Viola, attended the funeral of an uncle at Tippecanoe.

William Downard of Akron spent Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Russell of East Liverpool were here Sunday.

Mrs. O. L. Cunningham and daughter, Gladys, spent Saturday with friends at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Mrs. Earl Notman and children of Rogers are here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mummet and children, south of Sebring, and Fred Lindenbaugh of Barborton spent Sunday with John Brooks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Nerr Camp and son Don of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beck and children of Salem spent Sunday evening with Mrs. H. P. Burns.

Walter Stanley was in Cleveland Saturday.

Patrons Dispatch advertisers.

DAMASCUS

July 25—Rev. William Kirby, pastor of Friends church at Alliance, was in Damascus Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Wherry of Erie, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Green in Floral park addition.

Miss Jessie Grimes of Cambridge and Miss Sarah Grimes of Asheville, N. C., are guests of Damascus relatives.

C. G. Dalzell and son completed the spouting and rodding of the big new barn of Jack McDowd near Garfield, Monday.

George Ball has purchased the Sam Hall farm near Snodas Station. The farm contains 30 acres. Mr. Ball is having the grass on the farm made in to hay.

Agnes Heston entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Sarah Grimes, a number of her friends. Refreshments were served and a fine time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ford and family of Ravenspa spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cope. Miss Cope accompanied them and is spending the week at the Cope home.

Mrs. George Pearce and daughter of Minerva have been the guests of relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Chambers and son of Chicago are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon DeWitt were calling on friends here Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haines and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haines and children of Detroit are guests of Mrs. L. J. Stanley and family.

Division No. 1 of the Aid society served the banquet given by the Damascus band and their ladies Saturday night.

S. J. Santee and family attended the Santee reunion at Rockhill park Saturday.

S. Broomal has charge of raising the high school building and work is being done at this time preparatory to having a basement in the building.

Fred Sheridan has moved his household goods from here and will hold another position next year.

Mrs. Spencer has been sewing at Levi Stanley's the last few days.

Mrs. Gertrude Harzell of North Benton is the guest of Mrs. Diver.

The Ladies' Aid will quilt in the church parlors on Wednesday of this week.

The war draft has fell heavily on our little village—Clyde Stanley, H. O. Stanley, Carl Hobson, Vincent Chambers, Professor Drumol, Ray Pearce, E. Delzell, Fred Walker, Kent Gilbert, Russell Walters, Vern Mercer and some others, besides Damascus had already given nine who had enlisted.

Rev. S. P. Lloyd went to Marlboro to attend a conference to help in the efficiency service.

KNAUFVILLE

July 25—Sunday school at the Ridge church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, sun time. Everybody attend. Quite a number from here were in Canfield Saturday night.

Mrs. Hubert Paulin of Hickory called on her brother, James Dushman, one day last week.

There will be a baseball